

CONNECTICUT COMMUNITY COLLEGE NURSING PROGRAM
Capital Community College, Gateway Community College, Naugatuck Valley Community College
Norwalk Community College, Three Rivers Community College

CT-CCNP APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION– Academic Year 2010-2011
EXTERNAL TRANSFER NURSING APPLICANTS

An external nursing transfer applicant is defined as a student who has successfully completed one or more nursing courses within the last 18 months at a program outside of the Connecticut Community College system, and wishes to transfer in these courses for advanced placement.

Applicants to the Connecticut Community College Nursing Program must submit all application materials to the Admissions Office at their college of first choice by January 2, 2010 for spring semester transfers and July 1, 2010 for fall semester transfers. Applicants must successfully complete all nursing program admission requirements no later than the deadlines listed above. Applicants have the ability to rank a first, second and third choice on their application. Do not submit documents to any College other than your first choice college.

The Connecticut Community Colleges that offer the nursing program are Capital (Hartford), Gateway (North Haven), Naugatuck Valley (Waterbury), Norwalk (Norwalk), and Three Rivers (Norwich).

A student who has received a grade of failure (F) or unsatisfactory in the clinical component of any course in a health career program is not eligible for admission into the CT-CCNP. A “health career program” is defined as any allied health program whose curriculum has both a classroom and clinical component.

Acknowledgement of receipt of this application and all initial communication will be done through email. Students should provide a clearly written, valid email address on the CT-CCNP application. If you do not have an email address, please create an account with a site such as hotmail or yahoo prior to submitting your application.

The following documentation must be received by your college of first choice no later than January 2, 2010 for spring semester transfers and July 1, 2010 for fall semester transfers. Incomplete applications will not be considered:

- ✓ Completed and signed college application with $20.00 application fee for first-time applicants to any of the twelve (12) community colleges.
- ✓ Completed and signed CT-CCNP application.
- ✓ Official transcripts+ from all previously attended colleges and universities, regardless of age of transcripts and applicability to the nursing program.
- ✓ A written request for evaluation of nursing course work and nursing course descriptions from the applicant’s previous nursing program.
- ✓ Official high school transcripts+ or high school diploma indicating date of graduation, General Educational Development (GED) diploma, or State High School Equivalency diploma.
- ✓ Official SAT I score report, if applicable.
- ✓ Official TEAS score report (if not taken at a Connecticut Community College).
- ✓ Other official documents supporting completion of admission requirements (i.e. test scores/results; evaluations for credits earned outside the United States; course descriptions as needed).
- ✓ Proof of Measles, Mumps, Rubella (German Measles) and Varicella immunization if born after 12/31/56. Students who graduated from a CT high school in 1999 or later only need to provide proof of immunity to Varicella (Chicken Pox).

+ Please note: a transcript is not official unless it is received in an unopened envelope sealed by the high school or college.
Unofficial copies will not be accepted.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT AND CONSENT FOR THE DISCLOSURE OF EDUCATION RECORDS

The Connecticut Community College Nursing Program (CT-CCNP) consists of five (5) colleges serving the educational needs of residents of the State of Connecticut. Each participating college seeks to assure the privacy of the student education records they maintain. In order to efficiently and accurately maintain student records, it may be necessary to disclose some personally identifiable student information among the participating colleges and the Community Colleges System Office, such as to avoid the duplication of student identification numbers. Applicants are asked to voluntarily sign this Acknowledgement and Consent.

I hereby authorize all colleges of the Connecticut Community College Nursing Program (CT-CCNP) to release personally identifiable information pertaining to me that is contained in the education records maintained by any participating college to System Office personnel, to other participating colleges and to participating clinical sites at the time of application and thereafter for the purpose of my application for admission to the Program, registration for courses, my continued enrollment in the Nursing Program and for other appropriate purposes.
